

Printable I Spy Gragger

Instructions:

I found this idea on Pinterest but couldn't find a printable. Seeing as I went to so much effort to make it, I thought I'd share it. The top and bottom pictures are from the other Pinterest post.

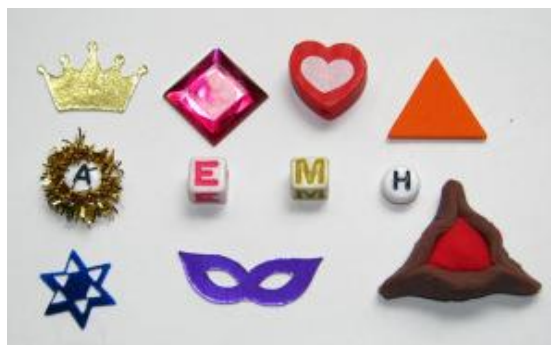

What you need:

- 1 x Drink Bottle clean empty with lid
- Rice & Food Colouring (a few drops in a zip lock bag)
- Some or all of the following objects or any others you can think of:
 - Megillah – I made these from match sticks and paper. I just glued and rolled coloured match sticks in stripes of coloured paper.
 - Coloured letter beads for the main characters in the story I have also included Vashti (A, E, M, V, H)
 - A crown
 - A jewel
 - A heart
 - A Triangle
 - A Pearl
 - A mask
 - A Horse
 - I couldn't find Star of David, or Jam-Tashen
 - Glitter (optional)
 - Other colourful gems or paper.

Notes:

I glued the lids shut to make sure little ones don't get them opened accidentally.

The next page has a printable tag which can be laminated and attached with string.

PURIM IS A JEWISH FESTIVAL

We read the story from a MEGILAH

King Ahashverosh who wears a crown.

Queen ESTHER who wears a nice jewel.

Her uncle Mordechai who has a kind heart.

And the bad man Haman

who might wear a hat shaped like a triangle hat.

Vashti who might wear a pearl.

Mordechai rode on a horse around town.

We can dress up, and put on a mask.
